NOTICE

Subject: - Final schedule for reappear examinations

1. The reappear (backlog) examinations of all semesters will be held from 4th November 2020 for all courses and all eligible batches. As all the students have already filled their reappear examination forms so there is no need to fill reappear examination forms for this particular examination.
2. Following type of candidates can also appear in this examination as special chance for improvement of their grades as per rules
 - a) Candidates who have been promoted from even semesters to odd semesters in July-Aug 2020 as per UGC guidelines.
 - b) Candidates who have given online examinations for final semester started from 29/09/2020.
 - c) Students of final semester who remain unable to give the examination or fail to submit the paper within prescribed time in the online MCQ examinations started from 29/09/2020.Though no examination fee will be taken from such candidates, but they have to fill special examination form which will be notified separately. All candidates belonging to above three categories are eligible to appear in the examination whether they have reappear or not.
3. For the point mentioned at no. 2 above, students can appear in a single subject or more subjects depending upon the subject or subjects in which they want to improve the grades.
4. The date sheet of the examination will be notified soon.
5. All the above examinations will be held in offline traditional mode as has been done previously by establishing examination centers at various colleges and institutes. All the colleges/institutes are required to make suitable arrangements for the conduct of examinations as during examinations all the directions of Punjab Govt. regarding COVID-19 will be strictly followed.
